

DOOR: Benjamin Moore®
North Sea Green 2053-30
WALL: Benjamin Moore
Alaskan Husky 1479

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a light-colored cardigan and dark pants, is holding a baby in a blue denim outfit. They are standing in a modern home interior. To the left is a white staircase with a wooden handrail. In the center is a teal door with a white frame. To the right is a white coat rack with two coats hanging on it. The wall is white and decorated with several framed pictures. The floor is dark wood. A large potted plant is in the foreground. A console table with a lamp and other items is on the left.

COLOR + CONNECTIONS

The color trends in this 2024 color palette are based on the theme of “Room for Everyone.” The combination of different generations, cultures and styles is reflected in the colors we select for our surroundings.

The qualities that make us unique come together for a beautiful result. In a similar way, you can combine the colors in this palette to create a harmonious experience in your home through color.

MONOCHROMATIC COLOR SCHEME

Create drama and dimension with a monochromatic color scheme.

A monochromatic color scheme uses a single hue in a room to create an elegant environment.

SINGLE SHADE

This design uses one color throughout without any variation in hue, carried across trim, cabinets, etc. Consider adding variations in sheen, with a flat sheen on walls and semi-gloss on trim.

WALLS AND CEILING: Clark+Kensington Flat Enamel Futuristic Cityscape 31B-7
BOARD AND BATTEN: Clark+Kensington Satin Futuristic Cityscape 31B-7

MULTIPLE SHADES

This design uses several shades of the same hue. This technique can make a smaller room appear bigger.
